2021 Urantia Association International Conference

- Our Theme: Towards Cosmic Citizenship… Your Time Has Come!
- Our Location: Urubamba, Cusco-Peru
- The Date: April 22th-25th, 2021
- Event Conference Summary Link: https://cvent.me/vvo7Qg
- Event Registration Link: https://cvent.me/kMVko7

We are pleased to announce that the 11th International Conference for Urantia Association International will be held in the Sacred Valley of the Incas, Urubamba, Cusco, Peru April 22—25, 2021 and will be hosted by the Urantia Association of Peru.

The theme will be Towards Cosmic Citizenship and the program will incorporate a combination of plenary sessions that will be held at the conference center, and workshops that will be held at the nearby archaeological sites.

The most beautiful and famous sites of the Incas are found in the Sacred Valley. A bus service will be provided to transport us to some of these sites and the costs will be included in the conference package price. For those interested in pre- and/or post-conference activities, the trains that go to Machu Picchu (one of the new Seven Wonders of the World) depart from the Sacred Valley and are close to the venue. If you always wanted to go to Peru, then 2021 is the year to do it!

Lodging

If you're planning to attend Urantia Association's International Conference in Urubamba-Peru, we urge you to register and book your accommodation with the hotel now, using our registration link

Although we are reserving rooms at the hotel, there is no guarantee that rooms will be available at short notice before the conference. And for your convenience, the hotel offers the option to book now and pay later, 45 days before our event begins. Register and book now to receive the promotional discount. The available accommodation facilities range from five-star hotels-haciendas to smaller (but no less warm and beautiful) hotels—to suit personal budgets. All facilities are close to one another. The accommodation prices include breakfast and will depend on the hotel chosen to stay in.

Unique adventures await your stay in the region surrounding the conference venue. In addition to the Urantia Book program and activities highlighting cosmic citizenship, the famous Sacred Valley of the Incas is a major tourist destination on the road to Machu Picchu, one of the world's most captivating archaeological sites.
